HISTORICAL EDITION RIFLE

Features

The Pony Express 150th Anniversary Limited Historical Edition Rifle is available on the Rossi Stainless .45 Long Colt rifle (Model #R92). Each rifle features detailed engraving on both sides of the forearm. The right side of the buttstock is engraved with an intricate, original piece of artwork that captures the unique history of the Pony Express, while the left side is reserved for custom personalization. Finally, both sides of the receiver are engraved with historically accurate images. Each rifle is individually numbered on the left side of the receiver.

Personalization

Personalizations are engraved on the left side of the stock. They can be up to 3 lines and 30-35 characters long. To personalize the gun there is an additional cost. Here are examples of the personalization templates.

Finding A Dealer

By law we are required to ship the gun to a licensed dealer. It is the customer's responsibility to find a dealer they would like to use and to have the dealer fax us his FFL (Federal Firearms License). The dealer will run a background check and will most likely charge a small fee of around $30. This price varies depending on the state and region. Please fax the FFL to 970-692-5324. If you are having trouble locating a dealer near you, let us know and we will help you find one.
